

MAY 2ND 2011 - FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PODCAST 47 OVERVIEW – New Tryline podcast available now

The increasingly popular PROBIZ Tryline is out now for your enjoyment.

Every team in the Engage Super League is given equal airtime in the weekly release from Phoenix Multimedia Productions for the Independent.

The show regularly features star guests from the sport with the likes of Iestyn Harris, Ryan Hudson, Martin Offiah, Royce Simmons and Robbie Hunter-Paul having all featured this season already.

All of the latest hot topics are discussed in detail as well as a comprehensive review of the latest round of top-flight action.

In this edition, the Independent's Dave Hadfield will be giving us his views on Steve McNamara's England squad which includes a first call-up for Huddersfield scrum-half Danny Brough.

He is also on hand to offer up his opinions on the games coming up in Super League this weekend.

As always there is a full run through too of the big breaking stories from your clubs from the last seven days.

Supporters are also invited to give their opinions on the show and their club by sending an email to yoursay@tryline.net

The PROBIZ Tryline is available download directly from iTunes and the Independent's website.

On the specially created <http://www.probiztryline.net> website, we are also introducing some new blogs including the latest entry from Cas fan Aidan McCartney.
