PODCAST 62 OVERVIEW – Stars come out for Tryline

Well, that's not strictly true, but Rangi Chase, Garry Schofield, Tony Smith, Jermaine McGillvary and Steve McNamara are just some of the big name guests who are appearing in the latest PROBIZ Tryline.

All five were in attendance at the Albert Goldthorpe Awards dinner at Huddersfield's Galpharm Stadium on Tuesday to receive or hand out the honours.

It's fair to say, we were spoilt for choice who to speak to, and because of that, we have had to split the show up into two parts with legends of the game like Ray French and Mike Stephenson to come next week.

Chase saw off a challenge from Sam Tomkins to take the Albert Goldthorpe Medal after a battle with the Wigan star that went right down to the final round of Super League.

The New Zealander tells us what it means to him to win a hotly contested award decided on a weekly basis by reporters watching games for the League Express.

McNamara presented Jermaine McGillvary of Huddersfield with the 'Rookie of the Year' and afterwards the pair both gave their reaction to PROBIZ Tryline.

Warrington coach Tony Smith is another guest on the show after attending the dinner to collect the Team of the year prize, while League Express editor Martyn Sadler tells us more about history of the award, and the oversight that has finally been corrected 21 years later!

As ever, there's a look back at the last round of Super League as the regular season reached a conclusion, but the Independent's Dave Hadfield isn't finished yet as he looks ahead to the action taking place this weekend as the play-offs take centre stage.

Plus, we report on the latest news from all the Super League clubs in our 'Stop the Press' round-up.

The PROBIZ Tryline is available download directly from iTunes and the Independent's website.

You can also access it and leave your feedback using the contact us section on the specially created <http://www.probiztryline.net> website, which this week also contains videos from the event at the Galpharm Stadium.
